

University of Glasgow

STRADA
Expanding knowledge, changing practice

Are you....

Articulate ✓

Enthusiastic ✓

Confident ✓

Flexible ✓

A Team Player ✓

Have a proven interest and knowledge of the drug and alcohol field ✓

Relevant experience of adult learning and development ✓

Then apply to work with STRADA as a Training Officer to enable us to proactively respond to the exciting challenges contained within the national Drug and Alcohol strategies in Scotland.

Working as part of a team of trainers, the role involves –

- Development & delivery of a range of focused learning and development opportunities
- Working directly with service providers, commissioners and a number of strategic partnerships

This is a home-based appointment. As you will be providing training and other learning activities from various locations, you will be provided with a car (if necessary), a mobile phone and appropriate IT equipment.

Majority of training locations will be in Northern Scotland, Western and Northern Isles, however the ability and willingness to travel to other locations as required is essential.

Salary £25,500 - £29,318(Plus 6% pension contribution) Fixed Term till March 2010

For an informal discussion of this post please contact Marion Logan, Operations Manager, STRADA on 07917 766252. To apply please contact DrugScope at: recruitment@drugscope.org.uk for an application pack or Carol Marsh, Office Manager: 020 7520 7550/7552

Closing Date for receipt of applications is 5:00pm, 11th June 2009

For more information on STRADA please go to www.projectstrada.org

STRADA

89 Dumbarton Road, Glasgow G11 6PW

Tel: +44 (0)141 330 2335/2400 Fax: +44 (0)141 330 8086

Email: strada@gla.ac.uk www.projectSTRADA.org

STRADA is a partnership between the University's Centre for Drug Misuse Research, the Department of Adult and Continuing Education and DrugScope. STRADA is Scotland's leading national workforce development organisation in the field of substance misuse. We are funded by the Scottish Government.

The University of Glasgow, charity no. SC004401
DrugScope, charity no. 255030