Confirmation of Place

Allocation of places will be on a 'first come first serve' basis. However, we will allocate places to ensure a broad range of organisations are in attendance, and as a consequence some organisations may have a restricted number of spaces allocated to them.

1. You will receive a confirmation by email from the Criminal Justice Social Work Development Centre stating that you have been allocated a place at the Conference.
2. The email will include the programme, instructions of how to get to the conference, and a map where appropriate.

▪ Who should attend

The conference road shows are aimed those working in the field of child care, education, health, police, youth work, and youth justice

▪ Closing date- 13th May 2009

Allocated places will be held until 13th May 2009. On that date all unused allocations will be redistributed to those on waiting lists. In doing so, we will bear in mind the larger numbers involved in some of our cities as well as the need for multi-agency involvement.

Cancellations

Places are limited and we anticipate being fully subscribed. We ask for your co-operation as we make every effort to minimise the number of "wasted" places. It is sometimes the case that when an event is free, people book a place in the hope that they might be able to get away to attend, and consider it no loss if they don't make it. This can result in empty seats on the day and disappointed people on a waiting list. In order to minimise this risk, can you, in so far as it is possible, reinforce this message. If you are offered a place please keep the date free to attend or cancel in time to allow us to re-allocate your place.

However, if you book a place and do not send an apology by email to CJSW Development Centre via Theresa.hanna@ed.ac.uk by 13th May 09, at 5pm, a cancellation fee of £50 will be charged and sent to your organisation to recover some of the cost incurred on your behalf for the conference. No apology submitted by the deadline means we cannot rebook your place.
