

Levelling the Playing Field: Learning from the experience of Black and Minority Ethnic Social Work Students

Tuesday 2 June 2009, 10am–2pm
Moray House, Holyrood Road, Edinburgh
FREE

Speakers:

- Boon Drysdale, MCFB, 'Introduction to Widening Access'
- Rachel Milne, BME Consultant, 'Student voices: is anybody listening?'
- Tuck-Chee Phung, RGU, 'From the personal to the political: an anti-racist perspective in Social Work education and practice'.

Speakers will be followed by workshops exploring the barriers to achieving anti-discriminatory workplaces and looking at how individuals and organisations can prepare themselves to offer anti-discriminatory workplace experiences.

Lunch will be provided.
