

Adult Support & Protection Awareness Training

Conference Room
Moray College, Elgin
2nd July 2009 : 10am to 4pm

Marr, Woodhill Annexe
Woodhill House, Aberdeen
3rd July 2009 : 10am to 4pm

Learning Outcomes Statement & Booking Information

By the end of the this day each participant should –

- Be aware and understand the implications of the legislation for the Support and Protection of Vulnerable Adults
- Understand and recognise what is meant by
 - A vulnerable adult
 - Abuse, danger, harm, exploitation and neglect
 - Types of abuse, danger and harm
 - Signs and symptoms of abuse
 - Patterns of abuse
- Be clear that you have a duty to report suspected, witnessed and/or actual harm and abuse
- Be clear to whom you should report suspected, witnessed and/or actual harm and abuse
- Be aware of the dilemmas in the area of adult protection eg the right to self determination vs. the right to protection, confidentiality vs. information sharing
- Be aware of the key legal concepts relevant to the protection of vulnerable adults, ie existing and forthcoming legislation
- Be aware of the interagency, multidisciplinary nature of adult protection eg at the stage of alert/referral, investigation, case conference, risk assessment and adult protection plan.

These events are free of charge and places will be allocated on a first come basis, to book a place please forward your contact details including any specific dietary or access requirements to: learningnetworknorth@aberdeenshire.gov.uk (please state Aberdeen or Elgin) or, contact Jan Foster, Administrator, Learning Network North on 01888 569200